

Operation Alert 2012

www.operationalert.com

What You Need To Know

- Operation Alert 2011 will be held at Brookwood Scout Reserve in Norwood, ON this year
- Troops and Companies are required to provide a self-run self-provided project OR provide service with a larger event to which you will be assigned in advance.
- Venturers are always welcome and encouraged to attend this camp as Offer of Service
- Patrols and project leaders will NOT return to their campsites for lunch – be completely self-contained and take what you need to eat lunch with you in the morning
- Upon arrival a leader MUST check in at the registration tent and verify registrations AND team composition.
- Once complete your group will be directed to your site. You will not be allowed to setup on site until registration is complete.

If the Contact leader is going to be late, please ensure the other leaders have all the necessary details

- Everything that comes in goes out – That includes ALL garbage.
- There are no picnic tables at Brookwood, bring your own.
- There will be no water available, bring your own.
- Fires are to be in designated fire pits only.
- NO pets will be allowed in camp. All pets will be denied access.
- Be Prepared – Poison Ivy is a concern at this time of year.
- Parking space will be limited this year. Please car pool whenever possible.
- If you have any GPS units, please bring them. They can be used in some of the projects.
